Koh Adang has no community and located at the national Park Ranger Unit area offering natural beauty of long white beach in the delightful surroundings especially at Son Cape opposite Koh Lipe where the beautiful beach of many hundred meters stretching along the cape.

-Attractions2:Koh Rawi is the large island of almost the same size as Koh Adang surrounded by many rocks, high steep cliffs, clean white sandy beach and clear sea offering quietness for relaxation. Having the forest trek at Talopalian Bay and Leuk Bay of white sand which is so-called the most prominent beach stretching at hundred meters where the National Park Ranger Unit is situated. A tiny island near Koh Chabang about 20 minutes to reach by long-tailed boats from Koh Adang.

-Attractions3_The dark stone beach at Koh Hin Ngam

There is another not to be missed island called "Koh Hin Ngam", located on the South West of Koh Adang Rawee. The unique natural beauty of this island is not a white sand beach but various shapes of shiny dark stones scattering around the island. This is like a wonder land where has polished dark stones around. On the sunshine day, when we see Koh Hin Ngam from being on boat, we will see dark beach with many dark stones. The shiny and smooth stones are best beautiful when the waves splash on them on sunshine day.

There is a very enjoyable activity for all tourists on Koh Hin Ngam which is rock piling of 13 stones without fail then your wish will come true. This fun activity seems to be a must to do when you visit this miracle island.

Another believe which is counted as the strict rule is warning about taking the stone out of the island. There is the sign with the curse and it said that “whoever dared to take any beautiful stone away from the island will face many different disasters”. The best to do is taking lot of photos to be your nice memory only.

Koh Hin Ngam is an amazing place where is really unforgettable and unable to defy description. Don't forget to visit

-Attractions4 Koh Jabang. it took about 20 minutes from Adang Island to get there. This place is not like others because the see dept is around 15 – 20 feet. It is suitable for both skin and scuba diving. this island is very interesting. It is the habitat of soft corals, sea anemones, and schools of colorful fish.

-Attractions5 Ko Yang or Yang Island. It is a small island. Here the sea is crystal clear and it is a source of beautiful hard corals, such as stag-horn coral, leaf coral, and brain coral. the beach is full of fine sand. This island is one of the spot for snorkeling.

If you are the one who is fascinated in the underwater world, you will love it. It is quite safe to dive around this area. The local authority already made the line for snorkeling or scuba diving with the rope. The children can do this too. We just hold the rope on the surface of the water and swim slowly along the line to see lives under the water.
